

29
19. The following instructions will be complied with.—

- [i] No steps to project beyond the vertical plane passing through the face of the building;
- [ii] No doors or windows to be opened in end walls of houses not facing public lanes or roads;
- [iii] No balcony to project on public roads or lanes, except as permitted on upper stories;
- [v] All gates, doors, windows, and shutters on ground floor, to open inwards.

Note:—This application is required when there is desired; _____

- [a] Any material alteration or enlargement of any buildings _____
- [b] Conversion into a place for human habitation of any buildings not originally constructed for human habitation; _____
- [c] Conversion in to more than one place for human habitation of a building originally constructed as one such place; _____
- [d] Conversion of two or more places of a human habitation into a greater number of such places; _____
- [e] Such alteration of the internal arrangement of building as affect an alteration of its drainage, or sanitary arrangements, or effect its security; _____
- [f] The additions of any rooms, buildings, outhouses, or other structures to any building.

Signature of applicant and translation into English, if in the vernacular.

Sukh s/o Nanda Dass