

(i) the level and width of the foundations and the level of the lowest floor with reference to the level of the centre of the street on which the front of the proposed building is to abut;

(j) the open space inside the surrounding proposed building for free circulation of air.

4. Every person, who erects or re-erects a building the whole or any part of which is intended or used for human habitation shall, if so required, construct one or more privies in connection with or as a part of such building

5 The outer covering of all pent roofs shall be made of tiles, iron sheets or other non-inflammable materials.

6 where a new building is to be erected, a clear space of atleast 5 feet shall be left around such building, unless the proposed building abuts an existing building or abuts on a street, provided that where this is not possible the application shall be considered on its merits, keeping in view the free circulation of air surrounding the proposed building.

7 No latrine or refuge water pit shall be constructed within ten feet of a kitchen, provided that where this is not possible, the application shall be considered on its merits, keeping the sanitary point in view

8. House drains through which waste or sullage water is intended to pass, shall be constructed of masonry or other impervious material and shall be connected to the nearest Cantonment public drain wherever such a drain exists 50 feet or nearby of the proposed building in the absence of such Cantonment drain near by the house drains shall be discharged into a soaking or cess pit; which shall be constructed and maintained by the house owner.

9 Every building of more than one storey shall have a width of stairs of not less than three feet to ensure safety in case of fire, and no such stairs shall be constructed of inflammable materials.

10. Every room in a building intended to be used for human habitation shall be provided with:—

(a) A floor area of at least 80 square feet and a width of 8 feet.

(b) At least one door, one window and one ventilator,

11. (1) The height of the proposed building shall not be less than:—

(a) In the case of a pent-roof 8 feet from the ground level to the eaves.

(b) In the case of a flat roof:—

(i) ground storey--10 feet from the floor.

(ii) subsequent storey--8 feet.

2. No. left constructed in a house shall be used for human habitation unless it complies with the minimum height required for subsequent storey.

12. No house steps shall be constructed so as to project on to a street or beyond a public drain running in front or at the back of building

13. (1) All doors, windows and ventilators provided for rooms in the proposed building shall not be less than the following minimum sizes:—

(i) Doors--3'x6'. (ii) Windows--2'x3'. (iii) Ventilators--1'x1½'.

(2) All gates, doors, windows or shutters on the ground floor at the building abutting on a street or lane shall not be made opening outward on the said street or the lane.

14 No latrine shall be allowed to open on any public street or lane unless screened by 5 feet high purdah wall.

15 No temple, mosque, church, or other religious or public building shall be erected unless a clear 10 feet space is left in front of the proposed building if it abuts on a street

16. No room intended as a godown for the storage of food grains in excess of fifty maunds shall be constructed unless the floor and walls upto a height of two feet are made of stone, concrete or other impervious materials and are also rot-proof.

17. The plinth of all buildings shall be at least one foot above the level of the ground and every wall of such building shall have a damp proof course of not less than one inch in thickness the plinth level which shall consist of cement concrete or plaster.

18 In no case shall the height of a building be more than one and a half the width of the street on which it is to abut

19. Where the plans submitted are unintelligible, ambiguous, or are not in accordance with these bye-laws, the Executive Officer shall return such plans to the applicant giving his reasons in writing and until a correct plan is submitted the applicant shall be deemed not to have given the legal notice required by section 179 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924).